We are delighted to launch our new knowledge site (www.nishithdesai.com) that is in actuality a portal of multidisciplinary research and knowledge management. We are more like a quasi-university; thus we believe in creating knowledge and sharing the same with all of you as much as possible.

From material on law practices and major industries of India to the numerous research papers, hotlines and articles from our experts, NDA's commitment to research and sharing that with clients, our professional colleagues, students and the public is clearly represented.

Nishith.TV is another way in which the site attempts to cater to a wide variety of audiences with separate channels created for these constituents.

In such ways as this, the new site has created a database of knowledge for everyone from trained lawyers to someone with no law training wanting to know a little bit more about the law and practice in India.

The site even offers a calendar of lectures, workshops and more entitled NDACONnect so everyone can attend and benefit from NDA experts around the world. And of course the clients of NDA will be able to access information, videos, audios, webinars, seminars and roundtables – thus creating a virtual world of information all intended to help with their overall experience.

But always there is a way to go to a portion of the site entitled Inspiration, which on the surface has no relation to law but rather is a way to take a break from all the information and see some things that inspire NDA.

Since it is a private site, you must first click 'agree' to access any portion of the site. After agreeing to the disclaimer, this unique knowledge site simply awaits your curiosity and your thirst for knowledge.

We invite you to peruse the site, take in the information, and enjoy the experience. Should you need any help or would like a thorough tour of our new website please visit our Knowledge Site Walkthrough.

As our knowledge site is in the early stage, we would gladly accept any comments, feedback and suggestions you might have.
