

› Law firm, industry leaders seek more time on DTC

A global think tank comprising public policy experts, industry leaders, jurists and academics, has recommended a window of four months to further analyse and submit a detailed reaction to the Direct Taxes Code (DTC) Bill. Nishith Desai, founder of law firm Nishith Desai Associates, made a request for the extension to the parliamentary standing committee on finance last week.