BANGALORE, India, Feb. 16, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- EuroKids International, a leading education company in India backed by global investment firm KKR, announced that it is expanding its network of schools to include Cambridge Public School (CPS), a K-12 school located in the HSR Layout, Bangalore.

Established in 1999, CPS offers holistic education to students through a balance of academics, sports and extra-curricular activities. The school has cultivated a reputation for educational excellence, having consistently achieved outstanding ICSE Board Examinations results. CPS' alumnus has additionally secured admissions in reputed professional colleges through the years.

The EuroKids group operates three K-12 Schools in Bangalore and CPS will be the fourth addition in the city to their portfolio of 38 K-12 schools across India. The group operates EuroKids, Kangaroo Kids, EuroSchool and Billabong High International Schools as part of their Education portfolio.

Prajodh Rajan, Co-founder and Group CEO of EuroKids International, said, "We welcome Cambridge Public School to the EuroKids family, and are excited that CPS will augment our ability to provide a high-quality, international-best-standard education to students in Bangalore. Our mission is to provide Pre-School and K-12 students with an educational foundation that instils a love for learning in them that will continue throughout their academic career, and give them the tools to succeed in the long term. This partnership will help us expand our operations in Bangalore and will help enhance value for all our stakeholders."

Haneef Ahmed, Chairman of CPS Group, said, "We are happy to partner with an education group with such deep expertise and ability to enhance the teaching and learning experience at our school. This partnership will create synergy and help build on our strengths and create opportunities for greater efficiency and enhanced student outcomes."

He also added that the students who have graduated from the portals of Cambridge have excelled and made their way to reputed universities both in India and abroad and are today well placed in leading organisations.

Having acquired Kangaroo Kids and Billabong High in 2017, EuroKids International has a successful track record in the education space and looks to continue adding high-quality education brands to its portfolio.

The EuroKids International group - which includes a collaborative network of over 1,200 Pre-Schools and 38 K-12 campuses - is committed to inspiring the joy of learning to over 1.5 lakh families every day. The group enables jobs for over 10,000 individuals nationwide and also creates long-term sustainable entrepreneurial opportunities for over 1,000 women entrepreneurs under its pre-school network.

LoEstro, Nishith Desai & Associates and E&Y acted as advisors for EuroKids International.
