TELEMEDICINE IN INDIA

October 24, 2020

Dr. Milind Antani, Darren Punnen and Shreya Shenolikar analyse the legal and regulatory framework governing telemedicine in NDA's new research paper titled 'Telemedicine in India: The Future of Medical Practice?'. The use of telemedicine has exponentially grown in India over the past couple of years making it the new normal for many of us. Telemedicine is also a game changer for the growth of digital health in India by increasing access to quality healthcare for all Indians.

The research paper provides a comprehensive overview of the legal and regulatory framework applicable to telemedicine, including the Telemedicine Practice Guidelines released earlier this year in light of the COVID-19 pandemic. The research paper can be accessed here.
